International
Cadet Class
Association

The only World Sailing International Class dedicated to double handed sailing for the age group of 6-17 year olds (junior class).

Produced generations of top-notch sailors, for example Rolex World Sailor of the Year Award 2016 winner and Olympic sailing hero Santiago Lange.

The International Cadet Class is a tradition based innovative sailing class not afraid of re-inventing itself. As a technical racing training class it is the pre-eminent, pre-olympic, pre-high performance, unsurpassed double handed junior sailing class!

Unique dynamics between an older helm and a younger crew ■ empathy in motion and in practice ■ learning to deal with stress situations (e.g. start, mark rounding, bad weather) ■ learning by doing ■ learning the usefulness of rules and to apply and debate them ■ family friendly class with large social cohesion.

Affordable double handed junior racing class ■ long service life ■ low threshold entry ■ easily transportable boats ■ closed class rules ■ can be maintained and repaired at home ■ worldwide network of first rate Cadet builders ■ building licences available, hence cost effective local building.

Truly international class (on 4 continents, in more than 40 countries, spanning the globe) ■ successfully feeds sailors into youth classes ■ international racing experience with European and World Championships ■ international networking and bonding at a young age makes for friends for life.

High rate of Cadet sailors continues to race actively ■ high rate of ceo-material ■ impressive list of international Olympians with a Cadet past ■ more than 10,000 sail numbers issued ■ more than 200,000 Cadet sailors.
